CULTURAL FESTIVAL

Here's an outline of the exciting performing and visual art programs that make up the Arctic Winter Games Cultural Festival:

PERFORMING ARTS

The Gala:

Presented by the N.W.T. Arts Council, the Cultural Festival features an evening of performers from all regions represented in the Arctic Winter Games including Greenland and the Soviet Union with a special emphasis on talent from the Northwest Territories. Tickets are available at the NACC ticket booth at Panda II Mall. (Evening Performances: General Admission: $15.00 Seniors/Students: $10.00 NACC Public Preview on March 14: Seniors: Free; Students: $5.00).

Storytelling at the Mess:

The Cultural Festival, with the assistance of the Department of Culture and Communications, presents two evenings of storytelling by storytellers representing a variety of northern cultures. Oldtime musicians provide entertainment to accompany tales from all across the north. Doors open at 7:30 pm. (Miner's Mess)

Northern Exposures: A Film Festival:

The Yellowknife Film Society, in co-operation with the Cultural Festival, presents a festival of films by and about northerners. The matinee presentation features films for the whole family while the evening show offers a cross section of excellent northern films. (NACC)

Caribou Stew:

An Evening of New Northern Theatre: Drama Kus and the Cultural Festival present an evening of dramatic works by northern playwrights and performers. A showcase of readings and selected scenes, this presentation highlights new directions for northern theatre in an informal setting. (Heritage Centre)

The Kids' Gala:

Kids' Unlimited and the Cultural Festival present an afternoon of activities and entertainment for children. Cultural performers of special interest to young people will share their talent and a variety of creative activities will be made available. (Heritage Centre)

The CBC Noonshow at Panda II Mall:

CBC Radio broadcasts live from Panda II Mall every day of the Cultural Festival. Listen for entertainment by and interviews with performers and up to date information about the Cultural Festival. (Panda II)

The Cultural Festival is sponsored by the NWT Arts Council (Department of Culture and Communications, GNWT), the Muttart Foundation and Communications Canada.
